

HAPPENINGS IN STATE

CALIFORNIA PRISON AND HOSPITAL POPULATION ON THE INCREASE

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 17.—California's state prison and hospital population is on the increase, according to the census bulletin of the State Board of Charities and Corrections. The population of the two prisons, San Quentin and Folsom, has increased 133 convicts over last year, and the hospital population shows an increase of 262 patients. The total population of the prisons is 3378; hospitals, 10,156; reform schools, 691, a decrease of 8 over last year; home for feeble minded, 1228, an increase of 36; industrial home for adult blind, 136, an increase of 7.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 17.—Scores of graduate nurses at San Francisco, Sacramento and Los Angeles started taking the examination for war nurses today. Miss Anna C. James, head of the state nurses' registration bureau, is in charge. Those who qualify will be eligible for service as Red Cross nurses.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 17.—Housewives of California are warned by the State Board of Health to beware of agents selling a patent fruit preserving material. A sample of the material has been analyzed at the University of California and found to contain boric acid, a preservative prohibited by the state law and which is injurious to the human system. The price of the material, says Guy P. Jones, state morbidity statistician, is exorbitant and therefore the housewife is defrauded in addition to being sold an injurious drug.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 17.—The city of Burlingame, millionaire's suburb of San Francisco, has no ambition to be a city. Its trustees have filed a petition with Secretary of State Jordan asking that the name be changed from the "city" to the "town" of Burlingame. No reason is given in the petition and Jordan is curious to know the reason why.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 17.—The state civil service commission announces examinations to be held in the near future to create an eligible list to fill vacancies in the following state positions: Factory inspector, motor vehicle department, $125 to (Continued on Page 3)

NEW DRAMATIC CLASS

On next Monday afternoon Mrs. Pearl Keller will open her dramatic class at her studio, 1233 South Brand boulevard, Tropic. The object of this class is the study of dramatic art and its practical application through all the ins and outs of stage work. At the end of the season Mrs. Keller has planned to have this class produce "The Little Princess," as dramatized from the book by Frances Hodgson Burnett. This will be the first production of this play off the professional stage. It is interesting to note that it is, in its photoplay version, the latest play in which Mary Pickford has appeared.

MR. GEORGE HASTINGS LEAVES

Mr. George Hastings, known affectionately as "Dad," left on Monday for Olancho, Cal., after a pleasant two weeks' visit in Glendale. He stopped with Mrs. M. B. Hendricks at her home, 1104½ West Broadway, to which she has recently returned after some time spent in Los Angeles. Mr. Hastings quite fell in love with Glendale and made many friends here, who hope for his return. On Wednesday evening of last week Mrs. Hendricks gave a theater party at the Palace Grand by way of a farewell party for "Dad." Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Offutt, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wells, Miss Hitchcock, Mr. Kugher, Mr. C. I. Lovejoy, Mrs. Hendricks and Mr. Hastings. A delicious supper was served afterwards at Mrs. Hendricks' home, and every one had a splendid time.

RED CROSS WAR RELIEF

The Red Cross war relief and recreation committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club will hold its first regular meeting Thursday, October 18, from 10 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Ard-Evin, North Glendale. At 1:30 Miss Ella Stevers, of the Los Angeles Y. W. C. A., will meet the physical culture class. Materials will be ready for those who knit, and an able instructor will assist those who have not yet learned the gentle art. Those wishing any special order of wool should make their wants known to Mrs. Campbell before the hour of meeting. Sewing materials will also be provided for those who wish to sew.

MERCHANTS' WEEK

EVENING NEWS TO ENCOURAGE THE GET-TOGETHER SPIRIT THIS WEEK

The Evening News is devoting space this week to the interest of the merchants and professional men of the city. The get-together spirit, all pull at once, boost for one another, are the points that will be emphasized. Good territory this for getting business, and what is necessary is for the merchants of the Glendale community to so organize that they will get the patronage of the people of the community.

People trade in a town because they like the town; people trade at a store because they are friends of the proprietor and clerks of that store. Men and women will drive ten or fifteen miles out of their way to purchase goods where they get good treatment. If one merchant overcharges a newcomer for an article, that overcharge may result in an injury to the whole town. The remark is made by that person, "Glendale is a hold-up town. You have to pay two prices for what you buy," and without giving other merchants a trial the overcharged man places his trade outside of the community. A business community must have prestige; it must have the respect of the people if the greatest possible success in business is attained. Nine thousand voices in Glendale must call out in chorus, "Glendale is a good place in which to trade."

AT CAMP LEWIS

CAMP LEWIS, TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 17.—Men in the hospital units here are getting a taste of attending warlike wounds. The men in training are being paired off and each given a bayonet carefully muffled with scabbards and cloth. However, they become so enthusiastic in this method of bayonet drill that bumped heads and skinned hands are constantly coming into the hospital. Several squads also are drilling with "gas masks" made of black cloth in lieu of the real article.

Approximately 16 per cent of the third quota has not yet arrived, although the last men were due Thursday night. Washington and Montana have sent more than their allotment, but, on the other hand, the other states of the district are under their quotas. California is the farthest behind. The shortage is attributed by army officials to failure of district boards to certify men after appeals had been taken, in time for mobilization.

LEO CARRILLO'S SUCCESS

Mr. and Mrs. Morris M. Cook have just received an interesting letter from Leo Carrillo, who visited them this summer at their home, 219 South Brand boulevard, Tropic, and who is now starring in New York City in Oliver Morosco's new production, "Lombardi Limited," in which he appeared for an eight weeks' run in Los Angeles during this past summer. Mr. Carrillo writes that the success of the play in New York is gratifyingly assured, and that already tickets are completely sold out eight weeks in advance. Mr. Carrillo comes of a very old California family, his father being Judge Carrillo of Santa Monica. He is an old friend of Mr. Cook's, having been intimately acquainted with him for a number of years.

LUNCHEON BY THE D. A. R.

The reciprocity day luncheon of the D. A. R., given at the Broadway Cafe in Los Angeles on Tuesday, was very well attended, over 200 representatives from the various Southern California chapters being present. A very good luncheon was served and an interesting program followed. Mrs. C. C. Cottle, vice state regent, presided, and the first speaker was Mrs. Herbert Cable, who talked very ably on the National Council of Defense. Mrs. Maynard Force Thayer also spoke very instructively on the "Americanization of Immigrants." Those attending from Glendale were Mrs. Mable Franklin Ocker, Mrs. S. C. Leppelman, Mrs. John Robert White, Mrs. Lizzie Pierce and Mrs. Theodore Pierce.

MRS. KIMBERLEY SUFFERS SEVERE INJURY

The friends of Mrs. Charles Wallace Kimberley, 345 South San Fernando road, Tropic, regret to learn that she not only suffered a severe nervous shock, but also sustained a fracture of the small bone of the left leg as the result of the fall of an elevator in the Brack Shops recently. The leg is in a plaster cast and Mrs. Kimberley will be confined to her bed for several weeks. She will be glad to see her friends in a few days.

LIBERTY LOAN SITUATION CRITICAL

EFFORT BY GERMAN SYMPATHIZERS TO INTERFERE WITH BOND SALE IS BEING MET BY GOVERNMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, October 17.—Efforts by Pro-Germans in the southwest to intimidate banks and interfere with the Liberty Loan were reported to the treasury department today. This was met by threats to remove government funds from banks not giving their hearty co-operation to bond sales. At the same time a direct effort for subscriptions from the German element is under way in that section. Yet the Liberty Loan situation is critical today, the treasury department feels.

AMERICAN ESCAPES FROM GERMAN PRISON

WILLETT CHARLES SMITH OF CONNECTICUT REACHES STOCKHOLM AFTER MUCH SUFFERING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
STOCKHOLM, October 17.—The first American to escape from a German prison camp, housing prisoners taken by the German raider, Moewe, reached here this afternoon, after six waterless days concealed in the hold of a vessel arriving from Kiel. He is Willett Charles Smith, of Norwalk, Conn.

ACTION BY FUEL ADMINISTRATOR EXPECTED

GOVERNMENT WILL IMMEDIATELY AUTHORIZE INCREASE IN COAL PRICES, IT IS PREDICTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, October 17.—Action by Fuel Administrator Garfield to prevent a nation-wide strike of bituminous coal miners, is expected this afternoon. Representatives here predict the government will authorize an increase in coal prices to absolve the increase in wages. This was agreed on tentatively at a recent joint conference.

GERMANY MAY EXTEND U-BOAT ZONE

REPORTS SAY KAISER EXPECTS SHORTLY TO DECLARE COASTS OF U. S., CANADA AND CUBA WAR ZONES

WASHINGTON, October 17.—Germany's reported intention of establishing a U-boat zone about the United States, Canada and Cuba was received here with skepticism. Despite this fact naval authorities say it is entirely possible that the Kaiser will make such an attempt to extend his sphere of activity.

MUNITIONS MANUFACTURERS EVADE TAX

EVASIONS MADE WHEN FILING RETURNS ON MUNITIONS PROFITS AMOUNT TO $17,000,000

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, October 17.—An alleged attempt to evade a $17,000,000 tax by munitions manufacturers has been disclosed by the treasury department. Of this sum all but $7,000,000 has been recovered. The total deficiency will probably be made up and in this event there will be no prosecution. The evasions were made by charging excessive plant depreciation, when filing returns under the law requiring 12-12 per cent yearly tax on munitions profits.

GERMANY'S PEACE EFFORTS

FAILING IN ATTEMPT TO TREAT WITH RUSSIA, KAISER TURNS HIS EFFORTS TO BALKAN STATES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, October 17.—Germany is working for a separate peace in the Balkans. Having failed to gain such peace with Russia, her efforts are now turned toward Rumania and Serbia, according to diplomatic advices. Diplomats see little chance for success in this undertaking.

NO FOOD FAMINE IN CALIFORNIA

MILLIONS OF POUNDS OF MEAT, POULTRY, BUTTER, EGGS AND CHEESE IN COLD STORAGE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SACRAMENTO, October 17.—Eight million dozen eggs were in cold storage in California, the quarter ending June 30, according to reports made public today by the state bureau. This is more than 30 eggs for each inhabitant. This does not include 155,235 lbs. of frozen and canned eggs in storage at the same time. There were also a million and a half pounds of butter, four and a half million pounds of fresh meat, nearly three million pounds of poultry and a half million pounds of cheese in storage at the same time.

UNIQUE CELEBRATION

MANY ARE HONORED AT UNUSUAL BIRTHDAY PARTY AT JOHNSTON HOME

A very unusual and exceptionally interesting birthday celebration was held on Tuesday evening, October 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnston, 835 Everett street, in honor of the joint birthday of Mr. Johnston and the Bryant twins, Dean and Hugh, who are the nephews of Mrs. Johnston, and were sixteen years old. Oddly enough, there were among the guests Mrs. Will Goss, whose birthday came on Monday, the day before, and Miss Wuanita Emery, whose birthday followed the day after the party.

Another coincidence among the 31 relatives and friends present was that three of the couples celebrate their golden wedding anniversary in the year 1917. Each of the guests contributed something to the entertainment of the evening, the result being a varied and exceedingly enjoyable program. Among the numbers were a song by Mrs. E. L. Appleton of Los Angeles, and a duet by Mrs. Bryant and her son, Albert, who later also sang a solo. Mr. Goss gave a number on the violin, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Burket. Mr. James W. Johnston of Cedar Rapids, Ia., brother of Mr. Henry Johnston, gave several readings through the evening and also added greatly to the merriment of the occasion with two elaborate and amusing presentation speeches with which gifts were bestowed upon both Mr. and Mrs. Johnston. A number of gifts were received by the several honored guests of the evening, and there was much fun for every one. Refreshments were served, and decorations were flowers of the season from Mrs. Johnston's garden.

CALLS BLUFF ON DODGE

Glendale, Cal., Oct. 15, 1917.
Mr. A. T. Cowan, Glendale News:

Dear Sir—In the News of the 12th you stated that the county would give $5000 and the city of Los Angeles $10,000 for the Ivanhoe bridge, and the county supervisor, Mr. Dodge, asked if Glendale could help raise the other $5000. We want the bridge. I think Glendale and Casa Verdugo could raise $4000 and Tropic could raise $1000. If 100 men would give $25 and 100 give $10, the other $500 could be raised in small change.

There has been enough talk about that bridge in Glendale. Now let us do some work and call the bluff of Mr. Dodge. I think you are the man to take charge of the cash. I will give $25 and $10 to help start it, and will hand you the $35 as soon as you want it. Now, Mr. Cowan, go to it. Respectfully, W. J. BROAD.

DISTRICT OFFICERS HERE

On Tuesday evening the regular meeting of the Rebekah degree was held in the I. O. O. F. Hall, the special occasion being the entertainment of the district deputy president, Mrs. Lizzie Sutliff, on her official visit, with her grand marshal, Mrs. Lulu Beason. The initiation of two new members also took place—Mrs. R. M. McGee and Mrs. Louis Scovern. The work was put on by the Edelweiss lodge of Los Angeles, the staff consisting of 24 members. After the regular work the motto of the lodge was demonstrated by a candle drill. About 35 guests from the Edelweiss lodge of Los Angeles were present and about 15 from the East Gate lodge of Los Angeles. After the initiation the installing team was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses, for each member, as an appreciation of the work put on. About 75 were present in all. Refreshments of punch and wafers were served.

THE ELKS' BUILDING

It will not be out of place for any citizen of Glendale who is anxious to know just what improvements are going on in the community to visit the new Elks' building at this stage of its construction and get a clear idea of the various apartments. The basement is divided into two rooms, namely, the dining room, with its large kitchen, and the bowling alley. The dining room is very large and will accommodate several hundred people. It is provided with a stage, and will be a very suitable place in which to hold banquets. Now we have told you about the basement rooms, and our advice to you is that you start at the basement and spend sufficient time on all the floors to get a good idea of how they are divided. In a few weeks a very comprehensive description of the entire building will be published in the Evening News.

FIRE PROTECTION

COMMITTEES WILL GIVE REPORTS OF INVESTIGATION AT C. OF C. TONIGHT

Frederick Baker, chairman; G. H. Bentley and Attorney W. T. Sprowls constitute a committee appointed at a recent meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to report this Wednesday at the Chamber of Commerce, 1010 West Broadway, as to the need of better fire protection in Glendale. This committee was appointed with a view of having the question taken up in an unbiased manner, and the report they bring in this evening will be one that is based upon careful investigation. You are invited to be present at 7:45 to hear the report.

Mattison B. Jones, chairman of the Ivanhoe bridge committee, will make a report as to the progress being made on this much needed bridge.

LITERARY SECTION

The literary section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the curator, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, 101 South Brand boulevard. Mrs. Pack was elected secretary. Miss Eulalia Richardson gave the talk of the afternoon, giving as her subject, "John Muir," whose name, as she said, signified to her "The Mountains." Her talk was made especially interesting with illustrations from books and photographs which were passed about, and she told many personal experiences gleaned from her trips in connection with the Sierra Club, of which she is a member. Later assignments of topics were given out for the coming year and all sang "I Love You, California." The speakers for the next meeting will be Mrs. C. E. Harlan, who will give a review of the book, "Comfort in Old Books," and Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, whose subject is "Appreciation of Literature."

PRESBYTERIAN YOUNG PEOPLE

The Synodical Society of the Presbyterian church, now in session in Los Angeles, invites all the young people of the Glendale Presbyterian church to the complimentary supper and young people's program to be given Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the First Baptist church, South Flower street, between Seventh and Eighth streets. Table talks by prominent leaders will be the special feature of the evening. The invitation is to members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Sunday school, of the Young Women's Missionary Society and young people of the church generally.

The program will be over in time for all who wish to go to the Sunday Tabernacle in time for the evening service. Make your plans to be there.

Barker of Ramona Acres will give a 30-minute talk on community building, and the part that merchants of a city should take in local enterprises. He is an able speaker and a practical business man.

Interment will be at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

FARM TO TABLE POSTAL SERVICE

In the first year of its operation the parcel post carried approximately six hundred million packages, at a cost of approximately sixty million dollars, or an average of 10 cents per package. In the third year of its operation, it carried very close to two billion packages, at a cost of eighty-one million dollars. Since then it has been increasing in greater proportion. It is evident that the service has become very much improved, and from these figures it is plain that it has become very much cheaper as well; in other words, the average price per package has dropped from approximately 10c to 4c, while the scope of the system has enlarged many times.

In the second year of its inauguration, the postmaster general introduced the producer to consumer feature of the parcel post, and pledged to its operation the personal attention and co-operation of all postmasters and the best expedition the postal service could afford.

The purpose of this new "service" was to bring into closer and more permanent relation, the producer and the consumer; to eliminate expense in marketing; and to insure fresh and wholesome perishable supplies for the home. It is essentially a special service. If sent under the farm to table system, products from the farm will travel as fast as letters, and the delivering parcel post automobile will reach the house door with the letter carrier.

The plan of marketing by mail started originally with a view to include the staples of the table, but it has grown to include not only the principal perishables such as butter, eggs, cheese, fowls, dressed meats and fruit and vegetables, in all their variety; but specialties such as jellies and jams, canned fruits, specially flavored or prepared under old household recipes, pickles, dried flavors, nuts and relishes. There are hundreds of these "homemade" preparations that are gradually becoming known and adding to the increasing stream of provisions and farm-to-table service is bringing to the parcel post mails, and that would otherwise never have been known beyond a small and favored neighborhood.

Any housewife can fit this scheme of marketing to her needs if she will study the opportunities offered and plan for enough ahead to take advantage of the wide choice of low prices and high quality provisions that can be secured within a few hours.

The postoffices will supply the transportation, and will see to it that parcels of farm produce are hurried through to delivery without halt or delay. It is for the housewife to exploit the field. It holds an opportunity for economy that is at everyone's hand and at the service of every household. It is the people's service and the co-operation of all will insure its success.—Monrovia News.

PROFIT IN WASTE PAPER

In the year ended May 15, 1917, revenue of Edinburgh's cleansing department from waste paper collected and sold was $10,775, and the receipts from this source are largely increasing, says Rufus Fleming, consul at Edinburgh, reporting to the department of commerce. During the two months to July 15, 1917, the quantity of paper sold was 129 1-2 tons, giving a return of $5,870. There is no debit side to the account, as the revenue is derived from essential municipal operations of cleaning and sanitation.

Direct collection of waste paper came into operation in May, 1914. The general idea was to reach the citizens who put out papers with their refuse, to provide bags free of charge and to visit every street on fixed days. The carts removing the morning refuse are each provided with a bag, in which books and papers (which are readily recoverable from the refuse) can be deposited, and this material is quite salable when the dust has been shaken out.

Up to November, 1915, the paper was sold under contract in the condition collected, but from that date the department has undertaken the sorting as well. This is performed by female labor, twelve women on an average being employed, while two men with hand operated machines press the material into bales after it has been sorted.

Instead of the two collecting vans employed in May, 1914, there are now six engaged in this work, and the number of bags lent out has increased to over 8000. Each van is worked by a driver and two girls.

HOW TO MAKE GIVING A JOY

Time—that greatest asset of man—continues to roll by with unceasing regularity and in its round of events it has brought us back to the holiday season of the year. With the California sun beaming down at a temperature of over ninety degrees, it is hard to imagine that it is only sixty-nine shopping days until Christmas day. Impossible? Well, maybe so, but count it up, and the calendar will verify us. Think of it! Only a few short weeks and Christmas will be here.

Now that the safe and sane greeting card has taken the place of cheap and tawdry gifts that served as nightmare reminders of our thoughtfulness (?) throughout the year to those outside the family whom we desired to remember "with some little thing," it has placed the matter of gifts within the reach of all, and it has permitted many a cheery card-greeting to find its way to the homes of many friends that would have gone unremembered had it not been for these little tokens. Choice mottoes, framed Scripture verses, hand-painted cards, printed cards, and even the artistic postals all hold a prominent place in the present-day selection of Christmas gifts, and they make giving a joy and a pleasure unconfined. Now that our thoughts will be turned Christmas-ward during the coming weeks, why cannot we make out a list of those we know to whom Christmas does not bring its full quota of joy, and make it a point that the prettiest cards we can find will go to that list of friends. That will make our Christmas a real Christmas and one that will bring more joy than we have ever known before at that festive season of the year. Shall we all try it?—Rialto Record.

TRAVELERS MUST PAY TAX

After November 1 it will cost more to travel or to ship freight. The railroads, the steamship lines and the jitneys must collect and turn over to the government a tax of 8 per cent where a passenger fare is over 35 cents, "not including the amount paid for season or commutation tickets for trips less than 30 miles or transportation the fare for which does not exceed 35 cents."

The round trip fare to Venice or Long Beach or Redondo or Santa Monica is 50 cents. The passenger will pay the railway 54 cents from November 1 on. The one-way fare to each of these points is 35 cents, and, therefore, no tax will be collected. When you travel, bring your pennies with you.

The round trip fare to Pasadena is 25 cents; so there will be no tax. To Santa Ana it is $1; so the passenger will pay $1.08.

The result will no doubt be to increase the sale of commutation tickets, which, for distances under 30 miles, are not taxed. The size of family commutation tickets will be especially increased. The larger part of the heavy suburban travel in and out of Los Angeles, running into many thousands of people each day, is within the 30-mile distance. Fares paid on trains or to jitney bus drivers are taxed the same as tickets bought at ticket offices. The penalties are severe for failure to pay up.

If a ticket is purchased before November 1 and partly used, no tax will be collected except on mileage and scrip books. When such books are presented on or after November 1 the agent or conductor will collect the tax due. If a ticket is bought before November 1 and not used until November 1 or thereafter, the tax must be paid before it will be accepted for passage. Commutation tickets purchased and partly used before November 1 will not be taxed, regardless of distance.

The tax on freight shipments is 3 per cent of the freight charges. It applies to railroads, steamship lines and motor trucks serving as common carriers in this section. Whoever pays the freight pays the tax. If you ship a carload of oranges east and the freight charge is $300, the tax will be $9.

FIRE ESCAPES FOR SCHOOLS

Some of the California schools are equipped with novel fire escapes, which are not only a safeguard but afford the children as much amusement as a regular playground equipment. One of these fire escapes in Tropic, near Los Angeles, consists of several long sheet metal chutes, reinforced with angle iron and secured to the walls of the building. They extend from an iron platform on the second floor, which leads from the main corridor. Separate chutes are provided for the boys and girls.

The teachers encourage the use of the slides as an amusement to accustom the children to them. Each slide ends in light upward curve to check the momentum of the descent. At the point where the children reach the ground a pile of loose sand breaks the fall.

In Venice a spiral chute is employed, which is inclosed in a cylindrical metal casing. This is entered from a platform leading from the upper story. Like the straight slide, it is used as an amusement device by the pupils.—Whittier News.

AMERICAN AVIATOR'S DEATH EXAGGERATED

PARIS, October 5 (by mail).—Leonard M. Reno of Chicago, American aviator, attached to a French escadrille, is having difficulty convincing friends and others that he really isn't dead.

During a recent engagement Reno found himself in his machine over the German lines doing battle with a German plane. The German placed a lucky shot in Reno's gas tank. Several thousand feet in the air without gasoline for his motor and with a belligerent Teuton airman in the vicinity, gave Reno no alternative but to make for home. He did a lot of aerial acrobatics and the German gave up the chase, thinking his opponent done for. Reno tumbled over the French lines in safety, but a clump of trees interfered with a smooth landing and he smashed. Allied observers who saw the entire performance thought the youthful aviator had gone to the "honor roll," and so reported. The news sped its way to Paris, where Reno's friends remarked, "Another good one gone," and proceeded to settle down and mourn his fate.

Chapter II of Reno's accident found him crawling from under his battered machine and making for camp. Then he was given "leave" for Paris, where he might recover from his bruises.

Chapter III finds Reno walking into a Paris bank, where he had deposited funds. "I would like to cash a check," he said as he presented himself at the paying teller's window. French banks have the habit of always looking at the book before they cash checks. The customer always waits.

"I'm sorry," said the teller after consulting the bookkeeper. "We can't cash this check today. You see, Mr. Reno is dead. All his funds will be sent back to his father in Chicago. This check will have to wait."

Like Mark Twain, Reno refused to believe the story, or at least thought it was exaggerated. Luckily he happened to know the manager of the bank, who confirmed his story. The check was cashed. Practically all of the young birdman's friends in Paris had heard of his "untimely death," and were startled in turn when Reno met them, proof in the flesh and blood that he was not a dead one.

ANIMALS IN FIRE

Most animals are afraid of fire, and will fly from it in terror. To others there is a fascination about a flame, and they will walk into it, even though tortured by the heat, observes a writer in the United Presbyterian.

A horse in a burning stable goes mad with fear, but a dog is as cool as at any time. He keeps his nose down to the floor, where the air is purest, and sets himself calmly to finding his way out. Cats in fire cry piteously. They hide their faces from the light and crouch in corners. When their rescuer lifts them they are as a rule quite docile and subdued, never biting or scratching.

Birds seem to be hypnotized by fire, and keep perfectly still; even the loquacious parrot in a fire has nothing to say. Cows, like dogs, do not show alarm. They are easy to lead forth and often find their way out themselves.

A GOOD WAR STORY

A colored boy had answered all of the questions for enlistment satisfactorily until he was asked in which branch of the service he wished to enlist. He did not know.

"What is it—branch?"
"The infantry—the cavalry."
"What is infantry and cavalry?"
"Well, in the infantry you are given a gun; in the cavalry you have a gun and a horse."

"Oh, yes—in infantry for mine. When I starts to run I don't want to be bothered with no horse."

"Pa, mother's lookin' for yer."
"What's she want of me now?"
"She won't want nothing of yer, but she says she's goin' to give yer something."

PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

Two of our Glendale ladies were present at the meeting of the public affairs committee of the Friday Morning Club yesterday—Mrs. Florence Virden and Mrs. Elia W. Richardson,
the curator of civics of the Tuesday Afternoon Club of Glendale.

From the countenance of the large assembly the chairman, Mrs. E. K.
Foster, expressed their sentiments
when she said: "How glad we all are that the time has come again to hold our meetings and serve."

Now, more than ever, we need to be patriotic. Patriotism is doing those things right here in our community. Our community should be cared for now. You can't be a good citizen without doing your part. We can't do anything without co-operation. Our civic work and everything is complicated by the war, and to be patriotic we must be active citizens.

The speakers were introduced with a view of showing the large scope of work demanding attention, in studying our city.

Mrs. Donald Skeel spoke on industry and art, and showed how close they were interwoven, for dye and explosives are made in the same factory from the same materials. We should have the advantage of public industrial schools in America, where the finished product could be placed on the market as complete as the factory turns out. We have tried this out in the Philippine Islands, and have seen the skill manifested in the articles shown at the San Francisco Fair.

Mrs. Thomas J. Atchley spoke on
"The Service, Civil and Serviceable," and recommended that the secretary of civil service be not the examiner.

Mrs. W. R. Post gave an interesting talk on safeguarding the child in war times. Don't neglect child welfare.

Miss Iauthe Densmore spoke on
"The Next Step to Take in Our City;
When We See Other Cities' Conditions and How They are Meeting Them." She asked us to help secure
"by united effort which gets results"
floor coverings behind the counters
to secure comfort for the clerks.

Mrs. W. C. Tyler—High lights of recent legislation. The way to learn about legislation is to learn why it is needed.

Mrs. Layton told of the deplorable state of affairs at the women's department of the city jail. Where the clean or unclean use the same rooms and linen, and what had been accomplished to relieve this in a small degree, as there is a scarcity of room,
also good air.

Mrs. John J. Abramson stated that music is the symbol of if not the synonym of harmony. Community singing is a national asset, and music in camp is one prominent factor. Community means serving together. Sousa has given up his wonderful band to serve in showing his patriotism by devoting all his time training our military bands. When President Lincoln called for the second volunteers
there was no response. At this time there was a musician who wrote the poetry and put the words to music and sang the song we have all learned to love so well, "The Red, White and Blue," in public meetings in the different towns, and every man was moved to do his duty. The I. W. W.
songs are having their influence; they inflamm and produce discontent. Let us have good music in every community. Music is a power for our Liberty Boys and their loved ones.
We are learning the boy does not belong to us; he belongs to the whole world. So do we.

We can't do anything without cooperation. Let us all give liberally of our time and talents for civic betterment in whatever form we find it.
For giving doesn't impoverish any one, nor does withholding enrich.
Give, give, give; then smile and give again.

MRS. LILLIAN ROGERS KILLS SEASON'S LARGEST BUCK

The following reprint from the Santa Rosa Republican is of interest to the many Glendale friends of Mrs.
Lillian Rogers, formerly Miss Lillian Graham of Glendale, whose parents,
Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Graham, are now living on Verdugo road, at the corner of Third street:

"Mrs. Lillian Rogers of Cazadero claims the record for shooting the largest buck of the season, she having brought down a four-pointer that weighed 140 pounds dressed. The lady was a member of a hunting party which was visiting the big ranch of former Supervisor W. King, north of Cazadero, and while the party managed to get four deer, Mrs.
Rogers secured the largest one by many pounds.

"In the party were Dr. Bruce T.
Cockrill of Bloomfield, Frank Bowles
of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hart of Petaluma, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Breen of Monte Rio, Steve and Na-
lery Mackle of Valley Ford, Dr. S. S.
Bogle and John Gavigan. The party had an enjoyable time."

MISS GRACE SAXE TONIGHT

The last in the series of Bible studies under the auspices of the Sunday campaign will be given this evening at 7:45 at the First M. E. church by Miss Saxe, whose practical studies during the past two months have been so universally enjoyed. She has no hope so, I guess, or think so, but a "Thus saith the Lord." All lovers of the truth should attend this evening.
Subject of study will be "The Life of Christ." The general public is invited.

co: Machinists, $5.25 a day; locomot-

ing applications is October 31.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.— Nearly 89,000 cases of eggs are in cold storage in San Francisco. This is 5000 cases more than a year ago.
It is declared that there has been practically no demand for eggs for export, compared with thousands of cases shipped a year ago. In spite of these trade conditions, eggs are wholesaling around 38 cents. The excuse is "the farmer with his higher valuation of hens and feed." Yet one big produce merchant declared: "The farmer hasn't a thing to do with the price today. That price is made on California street, not on the farm.
The price comes from New York and Chicago, where there are thousands of cases of eggs in cold storage. In Chicago October 1 there were a quarter of a billion more eggs in cold storage than at the corresponding date
a year ago. The San Francisco figure is based on the warehouse controlled by the produce exchange alone." The figures show that last year there were 64,895 cases of California eggs, 1943 cases of Eastern eggs and 16,847 cases of outside eggs stored here. The total is 83,685 cases. This year there are 72,842 cases of California eggs, 440 of Eastern eggs, 15,539 cases of outside eggs stored here. The total is 88-821.

GUILD WILL SERVE LUNCH

At noon on Saturday a luncheon will be served by the St. Mark's rector's guild at the Bosserman hardware store, 339 Brand boulevard, from 12 until 1 o'clock. Among the appetizing things promised there will be served hot coffee, sandwiches, salads, Boston baked beans, hot spaghetti, cake, etc. It is certain to be a good lunch, and every one is invited to come and literally help themselves
—and, incidentally, the cause.

VETERAN CONDUCTOR A VISITOR

Mr. Joseph Willett of St. Albans, Vt., the well known tourist conductor, who has been with the Burlington road for the last 22 years, spent the day Tuesday as a guest at the home of Mrs. R. G. Payne, 325 South Central. Mr. Willett makes the run from Boston to Los Angeles and return every three weeks, completing the round trip sixteen times each year. He is a man widely known in every state in the Union.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Le Cour, of Penn street, Wednesday, October 17, a son.

THE HORSES

(William Kirk in New York Journal)
They cheered for the soldiers in bristling review,
With their buttons and knapsacks
and guns;
There were wives who postponed the last cheerful adieu
And mothers who wept for their sons.
There were kisses and cheers for the brave volunteers,
And praise from the flag-waving
throng,
But who in the groups cheered the four-legged troops?
For the horses were going along.

Oh, yes, for the horses were going along,
And proudly they pranced in review,
The high-stepping bay and the roan
and the gray,
Their bridles all shiny and new.
They didn't know when they would
charge with the men,
Or what they were hurrying for.
They didn't know why they were hearing "Good-bye!"
But the horses were going to war.

No epaulets gleamed on the trappings
they wore,
Each horse ranked as high as the rest;
But true to the trust of the soldier
he bore,
Each charger was giving his best.
True friends to the mortals who watched them go by,
Light stepping and willing and strong,
Their hearts beating proudly, their heads carried high,
The horses were going along.

The old miser in the story, who dropped a $5 gold piece in the plate
at church, mistaking it for a nickel,
could get no great satisfaction out of the deacon, as will be recalled, but he was not the man to give up easily.

Accordingly he sought legal advice with a view of instituting a suit at law. But the lawyer whom he consulted was one of those rare and gifted souls who would rather be witty than rich, or almost anything else,
for that matter.

"Sir," said he once, "you have no case. You are guilty of contributory negligence."

AN EDITOR'S OPINION

Editor George C. Starkey, of the Express, Watkins, N. Y., gives his opinion of the steel trap in a recent paragraph:

Thomas Mulligan was caught in a bear trap while tramping the mountains near Wilkes-Barre. He was held a prisoner for two hours while his two companions struggled to release him from the jaws of the trap.
When Mulligan was released he was unable to walk and the boys had to carry him to the nearest farmhouse and there get help to take him home.
How do you suppose the poor bear would have felt if he had been the one to have fallen into the trap instead of the boy? To our notion there is nothing to compare with the cruelty of the steel trap. We read recently that trappers in some localities who are looking for more valuable game, when skunks are found in the traps leave them to starve.

SPIRITUAL CHURCH

The Harmonial Spiritual church of Glendale will meet each Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. Z. Barnett, 502 West Ninth street. Everybody welcome. Mrs.

Many interested in the Liberty loan and the war tax bill which has become a law, have but a hazy notion of the meaning of "surtax."

Here it is: A surtax affects those having big incomes. When the interest derived by an individual or corporation from investments exceeds $5000 annually then that income is subject to surtax.

Thus a surtax will affect incomes derived from Liberty bonds only when the interest on those bonds exceeds the $5000 minimum. The interest on $125,000 in 4 per cent. Liberty bonds is $5000, and therefore is not subject to surtax.

In this way the government hopes to have the wage earner invest in the war loan since his investment would be small. Failure to surtax Liberty loans, on the other hand, would encourage millionaires and corporations to take up huge investments.

One of the greatest soldiers of the world refused to visit, when in Paris,
the tomb of Napoleon. To Ulysses S.
Grant war was a solemn duty. Its fratricidal battles filled his soul with sorrow. No victor was ever more generous toward the vanquished.

SAY, YOU!

The man who grabs his Jonah by the throat—
Who throttles back the yowl that longs to spout—
Who shakes his head and grins, although it hurts—
Who turns his big, black clouds all inside out—
Who takes a breath and says, "I'm darned if I Give up just yet!" His middle name is Try!

The man who throws a bloomin' monkey wrench
Into his balkin' engine, when he's mad—
Who fails to sand his track, but skids—and skids—
Who thinks the whole blamed world is bad and sad—
The man who knows hard luck is on his trail—
Won't win—because his middle name is Fail!

So, take another slant, old man—perhaps Things aren't as bummed-up as they seem to be—
Start something moving—glooms won't help along—
In front of "luck" just plant a letter "p."

And then, some day, you can look back on it
And see your middle name was just plain "GRIT."

NEWSPAPER MAN EXEMPTED

Joseph M. Stephenson, business manager of the South Bend (Ind.) News-Times, was recently granted exemption from service in the draft army on the ground that "the operation of a newspaper is just as essential for the winning of the war as fighting in the trenches, and that he could not be spared from his newspaper duties."

Gabriel R. Summers, father-in-law of Mr. Stephenson and principal owner of the News-Times, made a written statement in which he claimed "discharge from liability for military service for the said Joseph M. Stephenson on the ground that he is engaged in an industrial enterprise necessary to the maintenance of the military establishment or the effective operation of the military forces or the maintenance of the national interest during the emergency."

THE DAYS OF REAL SPORT

Mark Twain was called upon to speak at a club dinner, and took for his theme "Honesty." He said when he was a boy at home he one day saw a cartful of melons. He was only a boy—and he was tempted; besides, he liked melons.

The opportunity was there; there was little or no risk of detection.

"I sneaked up to that cart," said Mark, "and I stole a melon. I went into a passage to demolish it. But—I had no sooner set my teeth in it than I paused; a strange feeling came over me. I came to a quick resolution. Firmly, I walked up to that cart, placed the stolen melon where I got it from, and—took a ripe one!"

"Ah," said the visitor, "this village boasts a choral society, I understand."

"No," said the native, "we never boast of it."

FAMILY SECRETS

"Is your father a commuter, little boy?"

"Not yet, sir, but I 'spect he's goin' to be. I heard ma say he was goin' to git his sentence commuted."

BATTLEPLANES "PLAY DEAD AND ROLL OVER"

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Oct. 5 (by mail).—It is not only the smart dog that knows how to "play dead and roll over." Battleplane pilots out here do it every day, both British and German. It frequently happens that it is only by playing dead that they keep alive.

When planes are fighting high in the air and one suddenly finds himself in a tight corner he "plays dead." That is, he shoots vertically up into the air, turns over on his back and literally falls, head first, rolling over and over, simulating all the motions of a plane whose pilot has been killed and which is utterly out of control. So deceptive are these movements that it is impossible to tell the difference very often from the real thing.

Today I saw a good example of how this "playing dead" works out. Lieutenant A., flying at an altitude of three miles, well above the clouds, encountered two enemy machines. He dived at the nearest, and at short range fired a short burst into it from his machine gun. It pitched on its nose, and with smoke coming out of its fuselage, went plunging and spinning into the clouds below.

It so happened that a pilot belonging to an entirely different squadron happened to be patrolling under the clouds above which the fight took place. In his report he mentioned seeing an enemy plane, of a certain type, fall in flames out of the clouds over his head, and, burning fiercely, crash to the earth at such and such a spot.

As both time and place and the circumstances coincided exactly with the report of Lieutenant A., Lieutenant A. was credited with bringing down the German plane. But for this accident his fight would have netted his record nothing.

Whenever possible, the victor in a fight in the air follows the falling plane to the ground and actually sees it smash to bits. When this happens, to onlookers on the ground it appears exactly as if both planes are falling, for the one which follows must put his plane into a "nose spin" and fall in the wake of the other like a stone. It is only when the pursuing plane sees his victim crash that he, at only a few hundred feet from the ground, "flattens out" and zooms up into the sky again. Sometimes, to make sure, the pursuer fires from 50 to 100 rounds at his falling opponent as he falls in his wake to make sure that the spin is real and not just a wily pilot "playing dead." So it sometimes happens that a fall begins by a pilot "playing dead" and ends in it becoming genuine. In these cases the victorious pilot will never know whether he was firing at an enemy trying to escape or into the back of a dead man.

VALUE OF THE POTATO AS A HUMAN FOOD MATERIAL

There is no food which exactly takes the place of the potato when one is accustomed to it, says a statement issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, urging an increased consumption of this vegetable now that the markets of the country are well supplied. It has come to be such a part of our dinner that we miss it when it is not served. Besides, any leftover potato can be used in many very palatable ways for breakfast or supper, and this is a convenience from the housekeeper's standpoint, since it helps her to make acceptable meals.

Not only is it useful from the ease with which it can be prepared and the number of palatable ways in which it can be served, but it is very important for the food material it supplies. It is one of the most wholesome sources of starch and it is also fairly rich in the mineral matter which the body needs. Of the mineral salts one must not overlook the importance of the mild alkaline salts it contains, because these are greatly needed by the body to counterbalance the acid salts which meats and eggs produce when assimilated.

In this we have a justification of the use of potatoes in the diet in liberal quantities and of our common custom of serving them with meats. When the price permits potatoes should by all means be made a part of the diet.
